

Name: _____

To Kill a Mockingbird Socratic Seminar

As we continue through the text, you will need to prepare your presentations before you engage in the group discussion. Remember that you are responsible for active discussion.

As you read, you will be responsible for developing questions and finding quotations from the text that you think will help you answer those questions. You should do your best to explain why that quotation might be significant. Prepare at least one quotation explanation for each question and be ready to share these with rest of us. Prepare at least four questions for each chapter.
